Grandparent's Day!

Featuring the
Book Fair, Book Parade +
Bake-a-Book Event

Dear Grandparents, Parents and Friends,

What- We'd love you to join us for our annual Grandparent's Day and Book Fair. This year we've added a Bake-a-Book event to our celebrations, so we have something yummy to share for morning tea, after the book parade. The bake a book event is purely optional should your family chose to participate.

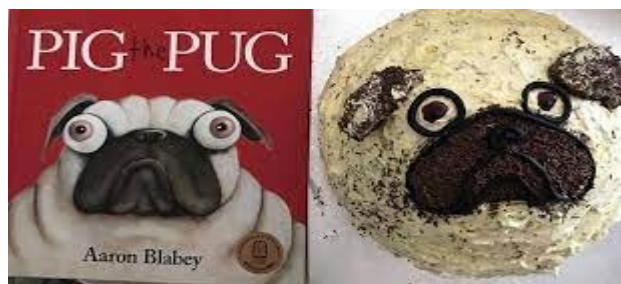

When- This huge event will be held at Glenbrook Public School on 21 September, from 9:30am.
That's Thursday, of Week 10 - the 2nd last day of Term 3!

From 8:40 am -9:10am the library will be open to look at the huge display of fabulous books to buy. This time is just for grandparents with their grandchildren. The rest of the school will be coming up, a class at a time, during the week.

Cakes need to be dropped off by 9:00am. (Optional)

From 9:30am children will parade around the silver seats to some inspiring tunes. Coffee/Tea will be served from the canteen around 10:30, after the parade.

How- Students are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite book character, to parade around the quadrangle at 9:30am. Bake a cake and have fun decorating it to represent your favourite book. Drop it off to Mrs Doherty, outside the canteen before 9:00am. Make sure it's labeled with your name, class and ingredients. Also label any plates, platters you need returned. We will share these cakes with our guests at morning tea time, after the parade.

Looking forward to a great day,
Mrs Howell and Mrs Doherty
